

Plural of nouns : 's' or 'es'

When you have more than one of a noun, it's usually enough to add an 's' to the end of the word. With certain word endings, such as -ch, -sh, -s, -x or -z, you must add 'es.'

Pluralise the words below by adding either 's' or 'es' as necessary.

torch	church
dish	switch
ditch	cross
sweet	pin
train	champion
beach	river
volt	box
kiss	watch
flash	window
bill	towel
tax	peach
bunch	fox
pitch	paper
handbag	address
back	wafer